HERMINIO NAVOR

PLAINTIFF,

-AGAINST-

WONG KWONG HOP INC.
(DBA WONG KWONG HOP)
SONAM D WANGCHUK

Defendants.

-----X

ACTION
UNDER 29 U.S.C. § 216(B)

COMPLAINT

Plaintiff Herminio Navor individually, by and through his attorneys, Stillman Legal PC., allege upon their knowledge and belief, and as against Wong Kwong Hop Inc. (DBA Wong Kwong Hop) (together, hereinafter “Wong Kwong Hop Inc.” or “Defendant Corporation”) Sonam D Wangchuk (an “Individual Defendant”) collectively with Defendant Corporations, “Defendants”), allege as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

- 1) Plaintiff was an employee of Defendants Wong Kwong Hop Inc. (DBA Wong Kwong Hop) Sonam D Wangchuk. Defendants own, operate or control a company with main headquarters at 8527 Grand Ave, Queens, NY 11373 under the name “Wong Kwong Hop Inc.”
- 2) Upon information and belief, Individual Defendant Sonam D Wangchuk serve as owner, manager, principle, or agent of Defendants Wong Kwong Hop Inc., and through the corporate entity operates or operated the company as a joint or unified enterprise.

3) Plaintiff was an employee of the Defendants.

4) Plaintiff worked for Defendants in excess of 40 hours per week, without appropriate compensation for the hours over 40 per week that he worked. Defendants failed to pay Plaintiff appropriately for any hours worked over 40 hours and paid him at straight time, which is against the appropriate Labor Laws.

5) Defendants' conduct extended beyond the Plaintiff to all other similarly situated employees. At all times relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintain a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff and other employees to work in excess of forty (40) hours per week without providing the overtime compensation required by federal and state law and regulations.

6) Plaintiff now brings this action on behalf of himself, for unpaid overtime and minimum wage orders pursuant to the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938, 29 U.S.C. § 201 et seq. ("FLSA"), and for violations of the N. Y. Lab. Law §§ 190 et seq. and 650 et seq. (the "NYLL"), and overtime wage orders of the New York Commission of Labor codified at N.Y. COMP. CODES R. & REGS. tit. 12, § 142-2.4 (2006), including applicable liquidated damages, interest, attorneys' fees, and costs.

7) Plaintiff seeks certification of this action as an individual action on behalf of himself, individually pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b).

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

8) This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 29 U.S.C. § 216(b) (FLSA), 28

U.S.C. § 1337 (interstate commerce) and 28 U.S.C. § 1331 (federal question). Supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state law claims is conferred by 28 U.S.C. § 1367(a).

9) Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 391(b) and (c) because all or a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims occurred in this district.

10) Defendants maintain their company headquarters and offices within this district, and Defendants operate one company located in this district. Further, Plaintiff was employed by Defendants in this District.

PARTIES

Plaintiff

11) Plaintiff Herminio Navor ("Plaintiff Navor") is an adult individual residing in Corona, New York. Plaintiff Navor was employed by the Defendants from on or about 2016 until November 2022.

Defendants

12) Defendants own, operate, or control a restaurant located at 8527 Grand Ave, Queens, NY 11373 under the name of Wong Kwong Hop Inc., at all times relevant to this complaint.

13) Upon information and belief, Wong Kwong Hop Inc., is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York. Upon information and belief, it maintains its principal place of business at 8527 Grand Ave, Queens, NY 11373.

14) Upon information and belief, Defendant Sonam D Wangchuk is an individual engaging (or who was engaged) in business with this district during the relevant time. Defendant is sued individually in his capacity as owner, officer and/or agent of the Defendant Corporation.

Defendant Sonam D Wangchuk possess or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporations, an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations. Defendant Sonam D Wangchuk determined the wages and compensation of the employees of Defendants, including Plaintiff, and established the schedules of the employees, maintained employee records, and had the authority to hire and fire employees.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

Defendants Constitute Joint Employers

15) Defendants operate a company in Queens, New York.

16) Defendants maintain as their principal place of business a centralized restaurant, located at at 8527 Grand Ave, Queens, NY 11373. Individual Sonam D Wangchuk possesses or possessed operational control over Defendant Corporation, possess or possessed an ownership interest in Defendant Corporations, and control or controlled significant functions of Defendant Corporations.

17) Upon information and belief, Defendant Sonam D Wangchuk serve or served as Chairperson and/or as Chief Executive Officer of Defendant Corporation.

18) Defendants are associated and joint employers, act in the interest of each other with respect to employees, pay employees by the same method, and share control over the employees.

19) Defendants possess or possessed substantial control over the Plaintiff working conditions, and over the policies and practices with respect to the employment and compensation of the Plaintiff referred to herein.

20) Defendants jointly employed the Plaintiff and are Plaintiff employers within the meaning of 29 U.S.C.201 et seq. and the New York Labor Law.

21) In the alternative, the Defendants constitute a single employer of the Plaintiff.

22) At all relevant times, Defendants were the Plaintiff employers within the meaning of the FLSA and New York Labor Law. Defendants had the power to hire and fire Plaintiff, control the terms and conditions of his employment and determine the rate and method of any compensation in exchange for Plaintiff services.

23) In each year from 2016 to the present, the Defendants, both separately and jointly, had gross annual volume of sales of not less than $500,000 (exclusive of excise taxes at the retail level that are separately stated).

24) In addition, upon information and belief, the Defendants and/or their enterprise were directly engaged in interstate commerce.

Plaintiff Herminio Navor

25) Plaintiff Navor worked for Defendants from approximately 2016 until November 2022.

26) He worked (11) eleven hours per day with one (1) day per week off. Typically Wednesday.

27) Plaintiff Herminio work approximately (66) sixty-six- hours per week, (11) eleven hours per day.

28) Plaintiff Navor was paid $600 per week in 2016.

29) In 2017, Defenants paid him $650 per week.

30) In 2018, Defendants paid him $700 per week.

31) In 2019 Defendants paid him $800 per week.

32) In 2020 Defendants paid Plaintiff $850.

33) In 2021 Defendants paid Plaintiff $859 per week.

34) In 2022 Defendants paid him $900 per week.

35) At all times, Defendants paid Plaintiff below what should have been his lawful pay.

36) Plaintiff Navor regularly handled goods in interstate commerce and other items produced outside of the State of New York.

37) Plaintiff Navor work duties required neither discretion nor independent judgment.

38) Plaintiff Navor worked in excess of 40 hours per week without appropriate overtime compensation from the beginning and until the end of his employment with Defendants.

39) No notification, either in the form of posted notices, or other means, were ever given to Plaintiff Navor regarding overtime and wages as required under the FLSA and NYLL.

40) Defendants did not provide Plaintiff Navor with each payment of wages accurate statement of wages, as required by NYLL 195(3).

41) Defendants never provided Plaintiff with a written notice, in English and in Spanish (Plaintiff Navor primary language), of his rate of pay, employer's regular payday, and such other information as required by NYLL §195(1).

Defendants' General Employment Practices

42) At all times, relevant to this complaint, Defendants maintained a policy and practice of requiring Plaintiff to work in excess of 40 hours per week without paying him appropriate overtime compensation, as required by federal and state laws. Defendants' pay practices resulted in Plaintiff not receiving payments for all his hours worked, resulting in Plaintiff effective rate of pay falling below the required overtime wage rate.

43) Plaintiff has been victim of Defendants' common policy and practices violating his rights under the FLSA and New York Labor Law by not paying him the wages he was owed for the hours he had worked.

- a. As part of their regular business practice, Defendants intentionally, willfully, and repeatedly harmed Plaintiff by engaging in a pattern, practice, and/or policy of violating the FLSA and the NYLL.
- b. Defendants failed to provide Plaintiff with statutorily required wage and hour records or statements of his pay received, in part so as to hide Defendants' violations of the wage and hour laws, and to take advantage of Plaintiff relative lack of sophistication in wage and hour laws.

- c. Upon information and belief, this was done to disguise the actual number of hours Plaintiff worked, and to avoid paying Plaintiff properly for (i) his full hours worked, (ii) for overtime due.
- d. Defendants did not provide Plaintiff with any document or other statement accurately accounting for his actual hours worked and setting forth rate of overtime wage.

FLSA INDIVIDUAL ACTION CLAIMS

44) Plaintiff brings their FLSA overtime, and liquidated damages claims pursuant to FLSA Section 16(b), 29 U.S.C. § 216(b), on behalf of himself.

45) At all relevant times, Plaintiff, has been subject to Defendants' common practices, policies, programs, procedures, protocols and plans including willfully failing and refusing to pay him the required overtime and willfully failing to keep records required by the FLSA.

46) The claims of Plaintiff stated herein are similar to those of other similarly situated employees.
